Speaker
Arun Gosain, MD
Board Certified in Plastic Surgery

Biography
Dr. Arun Gosain became the Division Head of Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery at Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children’s Hospital of Chicago in 2012. At that time, he was also named the Director of the Craniofacial Developmental Biology Laboratory at the Stanley Manne Children’s Research Institute and a Professor of Plastic Surgery at Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine. Dr. Gosain brought with him expertise in facial reanimation surgery to treat paralyzed facial muscles and almost 25 years of experience in craniofacial and pediatric plastic surgery. Throughout his training and career, he has been an active researcher, clinician, educator, and professional leader in the field of plastic surgery.

Dr. Gosain is committed to strengthening the specialty of plastic surgery worldwide. He has made several medical missions to underserved countries with residents and trainees, as well as hosting international scholars who do not have the learning opportunities in their home countries as those found in the United States. He currently serves as reviewer and editor for major publications focused on plastic surgery. Additionally, Dr. Gosain holds several leadership positions in key plastic surgery societies.
Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine requires course directors, speakers, instructors, planners and other individuals who are in a position to control the content of this activity to disclose any real or apparent conflict of interest they may have as related to the content of this activity.
