New Data, New Drugs: Effect of the 2013 Cholesterol Guidelines

Friday, March 11, 2016
7:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m.

Breakfast will be served at 7:00 a.m.
Presentation begins at 7:30 a.m.

Health Education Center
Conference Room A
Lake Forest Hospital
660 North Westmoreland Road
Lake Forest, Illinois 60045

Course Director
Ian Cohen, MD, FACC, FCSAI
Director of Cardiology
Bluhm Cardiovascular Institute
Lake Forest Hospital

CME Credit
1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™

Presenter
Neil J. Stone, MD
Robert Bonow Professor of Medicine
Northwestern Bluhm Cardiovascular Institute - Chicago

Learning Objectives
- Discuss how new data from IMPROVE_IT changes treatment of high cholesterol.
- Review the impact of PCSK9 monoclonal antibodies on treatment of familial hypercholesterolemia.
- Discuss advantages and disadvantages of fasting versus non-fasting lipids.

Registration
Register online at lfh.org/cme (NOT REQUIRED)
For more information contact Kim Murphy at kmurphy2@nm.org